CHEAPEST

There is scarcely a merchant in Richmond who doesn't apparently buy his goods cheaper, sell them cheaper, and lose (?) more on 'em than any other dealer. How funny it is, to be sure! An intelligent public will certainly take its choice between what other houses PROMISE and what WE PERFORM. We're naming as low prices for DECENT GOODS as any clothier in the State We sell the BEST-FITTING CLOTHING to be had in the city....Our assortment of SUMMER NECKWEAR is beautiful and our prices way down OUR SHIRTS fit well, and are very con fortable-even the $1 ones Our well-selected stock of UNDERWEAR is being rapidly sold, for the prices are right Persons who trade with us are waited upon by intelligent and gentlemanly salesmen of taste, who are fully competent to assist our customers in making their selections One may be rich in solld gold, yet poor indeed in the small change of politeness ... " Fine words butter no parenips," many say. It's a mistake. Fine words (and manners) butter all sorts of parsnips. Indeed, there are lots of people whose parsnips are buttered in no other way.
